

Social and Personal.

MRS. "STONEWALL" JACKSON and Mr. and Mrs. E. Randolph Preston, of N. C., are visiting Stanhope, N. C., at the 1095 Grove Avenue. Not only because she is the widow of one of the greatest generals the country has ever produced, but on account of her own delightful personality, Mrs. Jackson is greatly beloved by the Richmond people.

Mrs. Preston, who is named for her mother, Julia Jackson, the only surviving child of General Jackson, was with her grandmother at the time of the unveiling of the Jefferson Davis Monument, when the most distinguished group of Confederate women, young and old, drew together since the War between the States, was assembled here.

Invitations have been received here for the marriage of Miss Emily Magruder Gibson, daughter of Robert E. Gibson, to Richard L. Dobbie, the ceremony to take place on Wednesday evening, December 15, at 8 o'clock, in All Saints' Episcopal Church, Concord, N. C.

Miss Gibson is a niece of the late Miss Julia Magruder, the well known Virginia authoress, and the wedding will be a very brilliant event.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Poulke Belne, whose marriage last Tuesday was one of the brilliant events in New Orleans society this season, will arrive tonight to be the guest of Mrs. E. M. Moore, Mrs. William L. Leake, 815 Park Avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Belne left New Orleans by boat for New York and spent some time in Philadelphia visiting relatives there.

A very quiet wedding will be celebrated this afternoon at 4 o'clock at "Breezy Hill," near Staunton, when Miss Mary Campbell Grasty, daughter of Mrs. Thomas P. Grasty, will become the bride of Dr. Richard P. Bell, of Baltimore, Dr. A. M. Fraser, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Staunton, officiating.

The house will be artistically decorated in palms, ferns and white blossoms. Miss Rose Harrison will be the maid of honor, and the bride's only attendant. She will wear a gown of pale yellow satin crepe de chine, trimmed in fringe, and her hair will be yellow daisies and ferns tied with yellow tulle. Lewis Bell, brother of the groom, will act as best man.

The bride will enter the drawing-room on the arm of her brother, Dr. John Shorshall Grasty, and will wear a handsome gown of white satin crepe trimmed in Rose point lace that belonged to her mother.

Her flowers will be a shower of lilies of the valley and her veil will be held in place with a coronet of orange blossoms.

No reception will follow the ceremony on account of mourning in the bride's family, and on their return from their honeymoon Dr. Bell and his bride will make their home in Chattanooga, Tenn.

Out of town guests will include Mrs. W. Woodruff, Mrs. Isaac Wigate, Miss Mary Cary, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis A. Nickols, of Kentucky; Miss Lou Adkins, of Richmond; Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Edmonds, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Huntley Gordon, of Baltimore; Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Grasty.

Mrs. Bennett's debut. Mrs. E. L. Bennett entertained the younger set of Richmond society at a beautiful dance in their home, 117 East Grace Street, last night, when their daughter, Charlotte, made her formal bow to society.

The Misses Bryson, of Annapolis, were the guests of Miss Bennett for her debut party and about 150 invitations were sent out.

Mrs. Hunt's tea. Mrs. Albert F. Hunt has sent out invitations for a tea to be given between the hours of 4 and 5 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, December 1, at her residence, 1093 West Avenue.

Little Miss Florence Pizzini entertained a number of her friends on Monday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock at the home of her bridesmaids, Miss Franklin Street, at a very enjoyable birthday party. Those present were Misses Ann Benson, Margaret Brown, Margaret Cannon, Alma Cannon, Mildred Gates and Elizabeth Wood; Arthur Scrivenor, John Hotchkiss, William Wood, Jr., and B. Winthrop Pizzini.

Luncheon yesterday. Miss Helen Eichelberger was hostess at a beautifully appointed luncheon yesterday at the Petersburg Country Club in honor of Miss Helen West Harrison and her bridesmaids, Miss Harrison's wedding to Walter Hubard, of this city, will be celebrated on December 8 and will be a very brilliant event.

Marshall-Wellford. A very beautiful wedding was celebrated last evening at 8 o'clock in the First Presbyterian Church, when Miss Sue Seddon Tallaferrro Wellford,

WORDS ARE TOO FEEBLE

To Express Mrs. Stallings' Gratitude for the Good that Cardui Did to Her.

Wills Point, Tex.—"I sure would have died," writes Mrs. Victoria Stallings, of the above place, "if I had not gotten relief by the use of Cardui, as I did."

"I did not recover from my confinement as I should, so my mother, Mrs. H. A. Lee, advised me to take Cardui, and after taking half a bottle I was soon all right."

"Before taking Cardui I had a dreadful cough and suffered awful pains, but now I am stronger and in better health than I ever was in my life."

"I cannot say half enough in regard to its merits. Words are too feeble to express our gratitude for this great medicine."

"You can tell the world what Cardui did for me. I advise all suffering ladies to try it."

Once given a thorough trial, Cardui will always remain the preferred, standard remedy for all the ills that afflict women—the tonic to use when new strength is needed to build up the weary body and nerves.

Prepared from perfectly harmless vegetable ingredients, containing no mineral drugs, no glycerin or other possibly deleterious ingredients, Cardui is the best remedy for you to use, since it can do you nothing but good.

Thousands of ladies have regained their health as a result of taking Cardui.

Why not you?

daughter of Judge and Mrs. Beverly Randolph Wellford, of Gloucester county, was given in marriage to Dr. Thomas Robins Marshall, of this city, Rev. Edward Wellford, of Newport News, brother of the bride, assisted by Dr. Harry A. White, of Columbia, S. C., and Dr. McFadden, of Newport News.

Miss Elise Bauch, of Baltimore, attended the bride as maid of honor, and wore a white messaline gown and carried a sheaf of white chrysanthemums. Little Misses Mildred Snellings and Elizabeth Top were daintily dressed in white lingerie frocks and acted as flower girls. Elizabeth Lawrence, Samuel Rutherford Rose, William A. Monore, Pelham Blackford, Edwin Laird and Marshall Snellings, in costumes of white, held the ribbons.

The bride, who entered the church with father, Judge Wellford, and her uncle, Edward Wellford, was exquisitely gowned in white satin with insets of rare old lace and a tulle veil. Her flowers were lilies of the valley and sweet peas, and the pearls, which were her only ornaments, were worn by her father, Judge Wellford, and her uncle, Edward Wellford, was exquisitely gowned in white satin with insets of rare old lace and a tulle veil.

There was no reception, and Dr. and Mrs. Marshall left immediately for a trip North. Some of the out of town guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Bauch, Miss Elise Bauch, of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wellford, of Newport News.

Upon their return the couple will have apartments at the Chesterfield, where they will make their home for the winter.

Hazelwood—Bell. A marriage of considerable interest here will be celebrated this morning at half-past 9 o'clock at Oak Grove, Lynchburg county, the country home of the bride, when Miss Lucie A. Bell, youngest daughter of David Thomas Bell, will become the bride of James Halmia Hazelwood, son of the late J. P. Hazelwood.

The parlors will be beautifully decorated in mistletoe, cedar and pink, pink and lighted tapers. In the dining-room the color scheme, pink and white, will be effectively carried out in pink and white chrysanthemums and shaded lights.

The bridesmaids, Miss Agnes Walthall, Miss Jennie Lillian Bell, Miss Harby, Miss Nanette Hazelwood, and Miss Annie Wilburn Bell, will wear white silk frocks and carry arm-bouquets of pink chrysanthemums. Miss Lottie May Hurt, of Richmond, will attend her cousin as maid of honor and wear a gown of pale pink messaline and carry a sheaf of pink flowers tied with tulle. The ushers will include Alec Sculthorpe, Richard Ruckwitz, William Bell, William Crowder and Roy Estes.

The bride will enter the drawing-room with her maid of honor, and will wear a handsome gown of white satin, bordered with pearls and trimmed in real lace. Her tulle veil will be caught with a brooch belonging to her grandmother, and she will carry a copy of the "Marriage Vow" bound in white with markers of orange blossoms. The bride's ornaments will be a ring of the diamond, assisted by the late Mrs. old, and a diamond horseshoe, the gift of the groom.

A breakfast will follow the ceremony, after which Mr. Hazelwood and his bride will leave for the North. Before returning they will visit the bride's sister in Seattle, Washington.

The bridal party and house-guests were also entertained after the rehearsal Tuesday night.

Out-of-town guests present were: Miss Lottie May Hurt, of Richmond; Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Fowlkes, of Durham, N. C.; W. E. Ellerson, of Richmond; W. L. Fowlkes, of Danville; Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Herbert, of Richmond; Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Love, Miss Agnes Walthall, Miss Annie Bell, of South Hill; Mrs. J. O. Crowder, of Mecklenburg; Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Bell, of South Hill; Irby Hazelwood, William Crowder and Alec Sculthorpe.

Visiting Here. Miss Virginia Dance, who is spending some time in Richmond, has returned from Washington, where she attended the Virginia-Georgetown game last Saturday. While there Miss Dance was the guest of honor at several delightful functions.

Services at Episcopal Home. There will be a "House Blessing" service at the new Protestant Episcopal Church Home on Grove Avenue this afternoon at 4 o'clock. The services will be conducted by the bishop of the diocese, assisted by the bishop coadjutor, the Rt. Rev. Arthur S. Lloyd. Friends of the home are cordially invited to attend.

Stay-at-Home Whist Club. The Stay-at-Home Whist Club was entertained on Monday evening at the residence of Miss Helen Montague, 113 East Franklin Street. The tables were engaged, and top score was made by Mrs. Walter K. Martin and Arthur M. Cannon. The club will meet next Monday evening with John Tyler, 516 West Franklin Street.

Visiting Here. Misses Swift, Sineclair and Stubbs, of Gloucester, and Misses Douglas and Borden, of Norfolk, are the guests of Mrs. Blain Smith at her residence, 301 East Grand Street, during the teachers' convention this week.

Blair—Spilling. One of the prettiest home marriages of the season was solemnized Tuesday night at 9 o'clock, when Lillian Anna Spilling, the only daughter of Mrs. Louise F. and the late J. J. Spilling, was given in marriage to William Peterkin Blair, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Blair, the Rev. Oscar Gotthe officiating.

The parlor and library were beautifully decorated in palms, yellow chrysanthemums and shaded candles, the dining-room in lavender, carrying out the color scheme of lavender and gold. The bridesmaids, Misses Virgie and Anne Blair, wore cream silk, carrying arm bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums, and the maid of honor, Miss Jennie Lee Blair, gowned in yellow Salome silk, carried white chrysanthemums.

The bride was daintily gowned in a lavender princess, of imported French broadcloth, and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley, and was given away by her brother, Sam H. Spilling. After the ceremony refreshments were served in the dining-room, Miss Amelia Schmidt serving punch.

Dr. Henry Adrain Brady, of New York, was best man, and Charles R. Moss and B. C. Pattee acted as ushers. Mr. and Mrs. Blair left for New York, Niagara and Canada, and will be at home at 2603 Grove Avenue, after December 3.

Russell—Pollard. The marriage of Miss Lulu Pollard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Pollard, of 15 South Fifth Street, to W. Raleigh Russell, a prominent business man of this city, was celebrated in the home of the bride last evening at 8:30 o'clock. Rev. F. T. McFadden performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a handsome going-away gown of gray cloth, with hat and gloves to match. Mr. and Mrs. Russell left for an extended tour of the South. Owing to the illness of the bride's mother, the wedding was very quiet.

Meeting To-Day. The Confederate Memorial Literary Society will meet in the Confederate Museum this morning at 11 o'clock. A full attendance is desired.

In and Out of Town. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Eden Peyton, Jr., will return from New York this afternoon.

Miss Emily Grace Martlett is in Norfolk, where she attended the Brass-Saunners wedding.

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

BY VIRGINIA WESTOVER. Correspondents are requested to send communications on subjects in which they are interested and regarding which they desire information to the Editor of the Woman's Page.

The Martian Laws. Who collected the Martian Laws? Who translated them? E. D. B. Martia, wife of Gutthelm, of Britain, collected them, and Alfred the Great translated them into the Martian Code.

Squire of Dames. What legendary daughter of King Ryence of Wales is known as a "Squire of Dames"? S. W. H. Britton, who tilts with Sir Arlet and finally marries him.

Marriage in Church. When was the rite of marriage first sanctioned within the church? E. F. Not until the Reformation. Prior to this the customary place was at the door of the church. Until the first Prayer Book of Edward VI., published in 1549, the rubric of the Sarum Missal, was in use and directed that the man and woman about to be married should be placed before the door of the church. So late as 1559 Elizabeth, daughter of Henry II. of France, was married to Philip of Spain by the Bishop of Paris, at the church door of Notre Dame. Mary Stuart had been married the year before to the Dauphin on the same spot.

The First Battle Flag. Who made the first battle flag of the Confederacy? Is it still in existence? A. G. It is said to have been made by the famous Cary sisters—Constance and Henry—widely known war-time belles, and given by them to General Beauregard. The flag now belongs to the New Orleans Washington Artillery and is kept in Memorial Hall, that city.

Origin of the Name. What is the origin of the name chrysanthemum, and how was the culture of the flower introduced into this State? P. S. The name is derived from two Greek words meaning gold and flower, though its development in so many different colors has somewhat obscured from the name its original significance of golden flower. Its culture was introduced into Virginia by a sea captain, who brought as a gift to the mistress of a lower James River plantation roots of the chrysanthemum, which she planted in her garden borders.

"La Belle Choeuliere." Who was the original of the portrait under the above title by Lotard, now hanging in the Dresden gallery? A. M. P. Annette Beldauf, a Viennese woman of the humbler class, who was wedded to the Prince Dietrichstein.

"Cometh Up as a Flower." Who is the author of a nineteenth century novel entitled "Cometh Up as a Flower"? K. Rhoda Broughton, of Denbighshire, Wales.

Daughter of Hengist. Who was the princess who obtained an ascendancy over Vortigern in the Saxon conquest of England? G. D. A. Rowena, the daughter of Hengist, the Saxon. Vortigern fell in love with her and married her, to his undoing.

Mrs. Washington's Children. How many Mrs. Martha Washington's children outlived childhood, and what were their names? W. D. Mary Parke Custis, who died at the age of sixteen, and John Parke Custis, who died in 1781. Two children of the latter, Eleanor Parke Custis and George Washington Parke Custis, were adopted by Washington.

Spencer's Rosinoid. Who was the Rosinoid beloved of Spencer and introduced by him in the "Fairy Queen," under the name of Mirabel? S. A. L. She was Rosa Daniel, sister of Samuel Daniel and wife of John Florio.

Shweatt—Moore. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) WINCHESTER, VA., November 23.—Miss Fannie Moore and Archibald Shweatt were married at noon today at the home of the bride's father, Nicholas Moore, near Berryville, Clarke county, by Rev. Ed. Wall of Grace Episcopal Church. A large reception followed. They will live in Petersburg, where Mr. Shweatt is engaged in business.

Traylor—Daily. BURLINGTON, N. C., November 23.—At 10 o'clock to-day at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. John G. Daily, Miss Mamie Daily and Albert Newton Taylor, of Hookerton, N. C., were united in marriage, Rev. E. M. Snipes, of the Methodist Church, performing the ceremony. Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom boarded the east-bound Southern train for Kingston, where they will make their home.

Hives—Elmore. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) JULD, VA., November 23.—A pretty marriage took place at Lebanon Methodist Church, near here, yesterday, when Miss Lucille Chastyne Elmore became the bride of Southall C. Rives. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Loyd C. Moore, pastor of the church. The bride is the youngest daughter of the late T. T. Elmore, and the groom is a prosperous farmer and lumber dealer of Dinwiddie.

MACHINISTS RETURN TO WORK. Grievances Will Be Settled With High Officials at Washington. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) SPENGLER, Va., November 23.—An agreement was reached to-night between the Southern Railway officials here and the 180 machinists who struck last Saturday, charging one of the foremen here with the brutal treatment of the employes, and the night force returned to work at once. The day force returns to the benches tomorrow, and all departments will again be in operation.

The agreement provides that the grievances of the employes shall be taken up with the Southern officials at Washington, and settled between them and the officers of the International Association of Machinists.

A. McCallavray, district president of the machinists' organization, was in Spencer to-night in conference with the employes, when it was agreed that the men would return to work with the understanding that their troubles would be considered and properly adjusted by the high officers and the railway officials.

The conference lasted for several hours, and it was late when the decision was reached. Mr. McCallavray, who has been here since the strike was called, returned to Washington on a midnight train.

AN EDUCATIONAL FAIR. Committee Appointed by Isc of Wight Teachers' Association. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) ISLE OF WIGHT, VA., November 23.—The Isle of Wight Teachers' Association reorganized at Isle of Wight Courthouse on Saturday, November 20, with the following officers: President, E. W. Bennick, District Vice-Presidents—Harby, Mrs. Annie Latimer, Windsor, Miss E. L. Batten, Newport, R. H. Timberlake, Smithfield, Jas. W. Norman, Treasurer, I. L. Lowrey, Secretary, S. B. Ashby.

The delegates to the State Association were Messrs. Norman and Lowrey, with Misses Mamie Davis and Garry Watkins, of this county. The membership dues were increased to 50 cents per member, and every teacher of the county must pay this assessment.

J. S. Thomas, of Richmond, Assistant State Superintendent, gave the association two practical addresses. The association adopted Mr. Thomas's suggestions for holding an educational fair in the county. A committee, consisting of Messrs. Norman and Timberlake for the association, A. S. Johnston and Dr. R. L. Seward, of the county, was appointed to arrange for instituting plans working towards an educational fair to be held in the county some time in October, 1910.

The association will take up the matter at the regular January meeting, when the plans and suggestions of the committee will be discussed and perfected.

LITTLE IN GRUNDY JAIL. Ready for Trial Tuesday on Charge of Sextuple Murder at Hurley. TAZEWELL, VA., November 23.—Howard Little, charged with the sextuple murder at Hurley, in Buchanan county, was safely transported to Grundy, the county seat of Buchanan county. A posse composed of Sheriff Stacy, of Buchanan, and six deputies, took him to Grundy, where he was lodged in jail to await trial Thursday.

No precautions other than the heavy guard were taken to insure the man's safety. The citizens of the county are said to have undergone a change in respect to mob violence, and have decided to allow the law to have its course. Messrs. Greener and Gillespie, of Tazewell, have been employed by the people of the county to assist in the prosecution.

Everything is in readiness for the beginning of the trial on Thursday.

Road Will Be Improved. TOPEKA, KAN., November 23.—Following a threat by Governor Stubbs, of Kansas, to institute receivership proceedings against the Central Branch Railroad, a subsidiary road of the Missouri Pacific system, unless the line was improved speedily, George Gould, president of the Missouri Pacific, assured the Governor that the road would be improved at once. One hundred miles of 85-pound rails have been ordered for 1910.
